

The Women's Hospital

JOINTLY PHYSICIAN OWNED

Deaconess

congratulations
on your pregnancy

Having a baby is an exciting time, but may also come with some unknowns. We've developed a website especially for you—full of education and important reminders about car seat safety, cesarean sections, electronic media, health insurance, healthy pregnancy and baby, photography, baby blues, safe sleep and tobacco cessation. Be sure to visit: www.deaconess.com/OBeducation prior to your delivery for this important education.

Please contact the OB Pre-admission Nurses:

with any questions by calling 812-842-4170 or emailing preadmission@deaconess.com.
